Lynching in America: Confronting the Legacy of Racial Terror County Data Supplement

This supplement presents the numbers of documented African American victims of racial terror lynching killed in the United States between 1877 and 1950, per county/parish. This data was compiled as part of the Equal Justice Initiative's narrative report, Lynching in America: Confronting the Legacy of Racial Terror. In addition to reviewing this data, we encourage you to read the full report, explore the interactive map, and browse the report website featuring additional resources.

We also invite you to learn more about this history and its continuing impact by visiting the National Memorial for Peace and Justice and the Legacy Museum: From Enslavement to Mass Incarceration in Montgomery, Alabama.
